

PAUL BARNARD

Mission Group Lead Coach

A sought-after coach and facilitator in leadership and team development, Paul co-founded Mission Group and delivers executive and life coaching, keynotes and training for international and national corporate and not-for-profit organisations.

An award-winning practitioner, drawing on more than 20 years' experience, Paul has worked with CEOs and senior executives at organisations as diverse as the United Nations, UK Prime Minister's & Cabinet Office, Boeing, Marks & Spencer, ITV, Fidelity International, VMware and many more multinational, public and third sector organisations.

A certified practitioner in psychometric and profiling tools as well as development models, he coaches at a senior level covering leadership, team and personal effectiveness as well as executive presence and presentation training.

Holding a First Class Honours degree in Communications, Paul also guest lectures on leadership at universities. He lives in the UK with his wife and has three children.

About Mission Group

Mission Group was set up because we believe that every individual and team can break through to their next level of performance by focusing, learning and practicing. Mission Group's track-record in delivering coaching and leadership training speaks for itself:

David Burdon, Creative Director, Apple: "Mission Group provided training to my rapidly growing design team. We found the sessions to be hugely enjoyable and insightful. We grew as a team - and the training was a catalyst for significant progress. I continue to reflect on the insights gained."

Jason Wright, CEO, MoD Reserve Forces: "Paul is an exceptional coach. His significant experience operating at senior levels means that he brings real understanding of practical challenges to a deep knowledge of the theory. I have been challenged, enlightened and motivated in equal measure. His approach is deeply professional and unfailingly supportive; I consider myself extremely fortunate to have the benefit of his input."

Joe Murray, Prime Minister's Office & Cabinet Office: "A real heartfelt THANK YOU for all your expertise, energy and enthusiasm. I've crunched the numbers from the evaluation and we can safely say it was a success! 100% rated the session as excellent/good...all pretty amazing with people wanting to put things into practice."

Richard Pedley, Fidelity International: "Paul is one of the most skilled coaches and facilitators I have seen. The session with Paul was the most enjoyable and enlightening Leadership sessions I have been on. I learnt a lot from Paul and hope to work with him again in the near future."

It all starts with a conversation.
